

C'est La Mort (Deuteronomy 30:19-20) Sermon Devotional

Series – Counterfeits

Dr. David H. Rhoades – January 16, 2022

1. The term “c’est la vie” is French for “that’s life.” When you read the term “mort,” what comes to mind?
2. “C’est la mort” means “that’s death.” It is the title of this sermon because it signifies society’s view of death: that it’s no big deal. Do you believe that death is significant or insignificant?

Digging Deeper

3. Read Deuteronomy 30:19-20 or access Pastor David’s message at broadviewchurch.com/media.
4. In this passage, the Lord is giving Israel a choice: be devoted to him and live, or forsake him and die. Which is the wise choice?
5. For Israel, choosing life meant that they would be the recipients of God’s blessings, which included the land they would call home, protection from their enemies, and succeeding generations that would continue to receive God’s favor. For us today, what are some blessings we receive when we devote ourselves to the Lord?
6. What are some ways that people choose death today?
7. What are some ways that people choose life today?

Bringing It Home

8. If the Lord were presenting life or death as a choice to you today, which would you choose?
 9. Are you willing to devote yourself to the Lord so that you can receive his blessings and live?
